BRITISH WILL MOVE ON PEKING AT ONCE WITH OR WITHOUT AID.

LONDON, July 31.—In the House of Commons to-day the Parliamentary Secretary for the Foreign office, William St. John Broderick, announced the receipt of a dispatch from General Sir Alfred Gazelee, commanding the British forces in China, stating that he contemplated an immediate advance on Peking and that he hoped to have the co-operation of the allied forces.

TRUCE WITH LEGATIONERS.

Chinese Quit Fighting After Two Thousand are Killed.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, July 31, 6:10 P. M.—A special dispatch from Tien Tsin today says: "A Peking dispatch dated July 21 states that the first outside news reached there July 18. The failure of the relief expedition made the siege far more serious. On June 19 the Tsung Li Yamen broke off relations. June 20 China declared war. Baron Von Ketteler and Francis James, an English professor, were murdered. Over 400 non-combatants occupied the British Legation. "I understand converts are holding the north cathedral. A thousand refugees occupied the place of Prince Lu. A crucifix began July 17, after twenty-six days of fierce assault. One night the shelling was uninterrupted for six hours. "Four attempts were made to fire the British Legation. Two attacks resulted in the ruin of the Han Lin College (the Chinese National College). The cowardice of the Chinese prevented a successful rush. The British killed or dead 18: Germans, 10; Japanese, 10; French, 11; British, 5; Russians, 4; Americans, 3; Italians, 2; converts, 9. Total wounded, 98. The correspondents Morrison, Reid and Temyer are ill. "At least 2,000 Chinese have been killed. The Americans occupy a strong position on the city wall. Provisions are still sufficient. The hospital arrangements are excellent. Everybody is much exhausted by continuous work. "Imperial chiefs have commended the Boxers, and ordered missionaries to leave the interior, and commanded all viceroys to help Peking, but an edict dated July 15 enjoins protection and promises compensation. The report that a large relief force was coming produced this change. "Foreign governments should beware of being hoodwinked."

QUEEN'S SECOND SON IS DEAD.

Duke of Saxe-Coburg Dies of Cancer of the Tongue.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. COBURG, July 31.—The Duke of Saxe-Coburg, who died at 10 o'clock last evening at Rosenau Castle, by his sudden demise escaped a painful, lingering end. He had been suffering from cancer of the tongue for some time. His royal highness was a member of the family, who were aware of the nature of the disease, the duke took up his residence at Rosenau. His royal highness was unaware of the real state of his health and hoped that he would recover until Friday last, when his condition became such as to preclude hope. Saturday and Sunday he suffered such violent attacks of suffocation that arrangements were made for performing the operation of tracheotomy. Finally the duke died without having suffered severe pain. During the minority of his heir, the Duke of Albany, the government of the duchy will be conducted by the hereditary Prince of Hohenzollern-Langenberg, the guardian of the young Duke.

ASSASSIN WOULD REPEAT HIS CRIME.

King Humbert's Slayer Ready to Resume Operations if Released.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. MONZA, July 31.—The body of King Humbert, dressed in black, lies today on the bed of a villa near Monza. Around the massive candelabra, holding burning tapers at the foot and head of the bed are flowers placed by Queen Margherita, who passed the long hours of the night in prayer by the bed on which the body lies. Francis Bignami, the court chaplain, as in immediate charge of the body. The cardinal archbishop of Milan has ordered in requiem mass in all the churches in the diocese. Enormous numbers of telegrams and letters of condolence continue to arrive, including telegrams from the most illustrious families in Italy. Bressi maintains an air of the utmost cynicism in the course of his narrative. He declared himself to be a revolutionary anarchist, and said he was ready to resume operations if he were released. NEW KING HURVING HOME. LONDON, July 31.—A special dispatch from Rome says: King Victor Emmanuel III arrived at Brindisi today unexpectedly. The dispatch adds that the young Queen fulfilled when she was informed of the assassination of King Humbert. The King and Queen started for Monza immediately after reaching Brindisi.

EMPRESS HAS LEFT PEKING FOR NEW CAPITAL.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, July 31.—The brevity of news from Peking, leaving so much of importance unexplained, gives plenty of scope for speculation, but there is no further talk of memorial service at St. Paul's for the massacred diplomatists. There is nothing to show why the attacks on the legations ceased July 10th, nor the state of the supplies, except a Japanese message which mentions the end of the month (today) as the limit of resistance. The Emperor's health is reported to be such that he will be able to go through to the coast. Probably the government's intention will be to entirely gain the upper hand of the Imperial troops who rebelled. The British legations ceased July 10th, were at least able to interpose between the Ministers and the Tundies so as to prevent the threatened destruction of the foreign colony. Should the existence of the Ministers and the Tundies be found, it will enormously simplify the problem. Telegrams from Shanghai reiterate that the Emperor left Peking three weeks ago and that she will proclaim Si Ngan Fu the capital when Peking falls. The Chinese, however, profess to have been expelled from the capital, and the Japanese sources report that the Russian capture of the forts at New Chwang Thursday, July 26th. According to a Chefoo dispatch Admiral Alexieff has returned to Port Arthur.

The French legation has been partially wrecked. The attacks on the legations ceased some days ago. The Emperor and Empress are living in Peking.

Financial Loss Heavy and Several Persons are Badly Burned.

GRASS VALLEY, July 31.—The most disastrous fire since 1880 refused to abate two blocks of business houses and residences in the heart of Grass Valley at 1 o'clock this morning, causing a loss aggregating at least $250,000. Several people were badly burned.

The district burned is lower Main street between Auburn and Washington. The fire started in the Glasson building, a two-story wooden structure occupied in part by the Tuck City Laundry, from some unknown cause. An alarm was immediately sounded and five fire companies responded. The immense wooden structure burned like tinder. The flames spread rapidly and leaped across the street. Soon all the wooden buildings were ablaze. The brick building of the Wisconsin Hotel and Mazzac's saloon and Loutzenheiser's drug store alone saved the remainder of the city.

KEARNS ONCE REMARRIED AFTER

MORE IN JAIL TWO YEARS.

An Old Offender in Danger of a Long Term.

John Kearns, 30 years of age and a petty larcenist by occupation, is again in the clutches of the law. He was arrested at an early hour this morning by Officer Langworthy, who noticed him prowling around in the rear of the yard at Gallagher's grocery store on Telegraph avenue, twenty-fourth street. He had in his possession two monkey wrenches which he picked up in his raid, and was engaged in looking for additional booty when the officer called a halt to his efforts.

Kearns is considered a professional crook and has spent most of his life behind prison walls for petty offenses. He also served one term in State Prison. It is expected that he will be given the limit of the law in order to keep him in a place of safety for a time where he cannot lay his hands on the possessions of others.

LIEUT. SPURGIN DIES IN MANILA.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. WASHINGTON, July 31.—The War Department received the following cablegram from General MacArthur today: "MANILA, July 29.—Adjutant-General Spurgin, died, 6:30, evening July 29. First Infantry, First Lieutenant Twenty-first Infantry. Result: shock surgical operation.

Lieutenant Spurgin was born in Ohio, February 18, 1862. After graduation he was assigned to the Twenty-first Infantry. He was engaged in the battle of San Juan and in the campaign against Santiago, Cuba. In April, 1898, he was ordered to the Philippines, and served there until the date of his death. He was the son of John W. Spurgin, who is on duty as Collector of Customs of Manila.

DESERVING MEN SEEKING EMPLOYMENT.

The three members of the Board of Public Works are suffering from too much attention from their constituents, who are in search of work on the streets. There are only twelve men employed in cleaning the thoroughfares of Oakland, and there are several hundred applicants for these twelve places. As a consequence, they come in squads, detachments and battalions, all imploring, demanding and entreating for work. It is an annoying problem.

Mayor Snow said today: "I wish it were in my power to put them all to work, but under the strained financial condition of the city, we have been restricted by the Council to the employment of twelve men. We need a larger force, but there is no chance of the present time of placing more men on the streets. It is an unenviable position to be where work has to be refused to those who are really deserving and entitled to it. If the neighborhood clubs would take a hold of the problem and raise a little money to cover up the streets in their vicinity, it would be a patriotic purpose in giving men work and at the same time clean the thoroughfares. I do not doubt that if such a movement were inaugurated it would meet with success and greatly benefit the city."

STATEMENTS OF WITNESSES ARE CONTRADICTED

Powers Declares He Denounced Goebel's Murder

Denies He Said the Shots Came From His Office.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. GEORGETOWN, July 31.—The defendant in the trial in his own account, and resumed the stand in the afternoon on the morning of the assassination, to make arrangements for bringing more people to Frankfort. He looked his office door, as described by witness Goebel, did not have a recollection of anything being said concerning his previous actions, which Goebel had asserted to.

At 10 o'clock the party heard that Goebel had been assassinated and that the shot had been fired from the second floor of the executive building.

"I said it was a shame and an outrage and that it would bring the plans of all of us who were in the contest. I expressed my sentiments to other people that day."

Witness said that the statement of Goebel that he spoke derisively when told of the shooting was a complete falsehood.

"I thought it my duty," he continued, "to return to Frankfort as soon as possible, and did so that afternoon. I went to the executive building and took the key, the only one I ever had to the office. I unlocked the door. I found the lock had been drawn. I had difficulty in getting off and supplemented it with a new one, as has been stated. J. B. Matthews put on the new lock."

Witness said he had never heard any sort of violence talked of in the many years in which he participated, except in the case held in the Commission of Agriculture's office, in which Sheriff Durkin of Breckinridge county talked in an ordinary manner and was removed by witness.

The day after the assassination witness said he began an investigation to learn where the shot was fired from.

"I made no statement," Goebel said, "that I was satisfied such came from my office, and I did not tell him that I was thinking of going to see Frankfort's attorney to tell him all I knew. I have a talk with Governor Bradley about going to see Frankfort, but he advised me against it, and I did not go."

Powers said his attorney, Judge Yost, advised him to go to the mountains and remain there until public excitement died out before giving himself up for trial.

The Legislature had appropriated $100,000 for the prosecution of persons charged with the crime, and I did not believe it was possible for me to get a fair trial in Frankfort, Kentucky. Moreover, I did not think the civil authorities would protect me.

Witness denied that he had ever had any of a kind of a move-out conversation with Wharton Golden about what he had told on the stand last week, and denied that he had ever talked with him of the kind of the kind of Goebel or any member of the Legislature.

In regard to the testimony of Robert Noble, witness said he had a conversation with Noble with regard to the smokeless powder cartridges and never saw Noble at Frankfort January 25th, when Noble alleged to have been in the city, and he did not believe he had made so many damaging statements to him. Witness was kept busy denying statements made by witness Noble, Golden, Fulton, and Anderson.

AVOIDS THE SIN OF LABORING FOR A LIVING.

He was formerly a successful business man, but has been out of work for a long time. He has shown signs of a falling mind for some time, becoming imbalanced by the idea that it is sinful to labor. Recently he threatened the lives of his wife and children and this forced his wife, Mrs. Donovan, to file the insanity charges.

SALISBURY READY FOR ADVANCE ON PEKING AT ONCE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. LONDON, July 31.—The United States Ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, saw Lord Salisbury this evening and asked his views with regard to the changes in the Chinese situation brought about by the direct dispatches from Peking. Lord Salisbury assured Mr. Choate that Great Britain had no intention of helping the advance on Peking, nor so far as he knew, had any other power.

Lord Salisbury entirely acquiesced in Secretary Hay's desire to see something done as quickly as possible. He had no intention of bargaining with China in any way, shape or form until the Ministers were able under their own military escort.

The Associated Press correspondent here understands that China is making strenuous efforts to come to some agreement with the powers previous to handing over the Ministers, but this will not be considered a moment.

Once Peking has been reached and the Ministers have regained their liberty, the powers agreed, aggression will cease and negotiations will become a matter of negotiation. Lord Salisbury thinks it may still be proved that the Chinese government is not responsible for the attack on the legations, but as far as all governments are responsible for the maintenance of order.

It is stated that within a few days free communication will be established with the Ministers in Peking.

Four Hundred Persons Captured in Police Raid.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CHICAGO, July 31.—Nearly 400 persons, many of whom had never seen the inside of a police station before, were captured today in a wholesale raid on all-gold bucket shops located in the downtown district and carried off to the city's jails.

A dozen men, one of them John Dickinson & Co., prominently connected with the Board of Trade, were visited by the police during the raid, which was so thoroughly planned that hardly a person in the rooms raided succeeded in escaping.

The raid, conducted at the busiest hour of the day, resulted in the capture of a large number of persons, many of whom were traders with interest in the gold market. The police officers were in the room for some time, but the traders were not taken into custody.

It appears that Gen. Buller, Villiers and Crowther surrendered with 950 men, 1,400 horses, 350 rifles and a Krupp gun.

Some of the leaders in more distant parts of the hills hesitate to come in on the plea that they are independent of Gen. Buller.
